A GLOBAL OUTCRY

Stop The Killing of Critically Endangered Cross River Gorillas

74,349
Total number of signatures

Total number of countries

TOP 25

Critically Endangered Species

1 March 2013 - Senselessly violent murder of a male Cross River Gorilla, ordered by the Chief of Gendarmerie Brigade in Pinyin.

74,349* Global Citizens urge the Cameroon Government to:

- 1. Accelerate the creation of Great Ape Reserves in Lebialem
- 2. Sensitise and train Police and other Armed Forces concerning critically endangered species
- 3. Define strict procedures for local authorities to follow in responding to wildlife issues
- 4. Implement fines and penalties for the murder of Cross River Gorillas

United States

Signatures Per Country

This graph shows the top ten countries for signatures acquired. Each human graphic represents 500 signatures. The total list of countries signed was too long to include all, but each signature is important and was included.

Including: Mexico, Netherlands, Belgium, Australia, Portugal, Sweden, Argentina, Switzerland, Poland, Ireland, New Zealand, Greece, Ukraine, Romania, India, Denmark, Norway, Czech Republic, Croatia, Finland, Colombia, Israel, Malaysia, Slovenia, Chile, Japan, Turkey, Former Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Slovak Republic, Singapore, Bulgaria, Philippines, Belarus, Malta, Venezuela, Peru, Thailand, Costa Rica, Indonesia, Hong Kong, Cyprus, Luxembourg, Uruguay, Ecuador, Puerto Rico, United Arab Emirates, Latvia, Sri Lanka, Estonia, Lithuania, Egypt, China, Kenya, Kazakhstan, Austria, Lebanon, Guatemala, Taiwan, Trinidad and Tobago, Bollvia, Mauritius, Iceland, Macedonia, South Korea, Panama, Georgia, Nigeria, Paraguay, Bosnia-Herzegovina, El Salvador, Bahamas, Honduras, Vietnam, Albania, Bermuda, Iran, Montenegro, Namibia, Reunion (French), Zimbabwe, Barbados, Jamaica, Moldavia, Morocco, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Netherlands Antilles, Tunisia, Dominican Republic, Nepal, Saudi Arabia, Gibraltar, Qatar, Tanzania, Monaco, Serbie, Algeria, Azerbaidjan, Jordan, New Caledonia (French), Virgin Islands (USA), Nicaragua, Zambia, Armenia, Aruba, Botswana, Cayman Islands, Guadeloupe (French), Macau, Andorra, Cameroon, Ghana, Kuwait, Bahrain, Cambodia, Laos, Oman, Polynesia (French), Swaziland, Uganda, Virgin Islands (British), Brunei Darussalam, Malawi, Uzbekistan, Guyana, etc....

Global Campaign Reach

Map showing the global reach of the campaign with top ten countries for numbers of signature.

Cross River Gorillas rank among the Top 25 Critically Endangered Species, with an estimated world population of just 250 individuals, making them a priceless part of Cameroon's natural heritage.

Percentage of Signatures by Continent

Unexpected Countries

Antarctica 2 Signatures, Kiribati 2 signatures, Lebanon 61 signatures, North Korea 3 signatures

74,349 Signatures*

That's one person speaking out for CROSS RIVER GORILLAS every 7 minutes for one year!

African Conservation Foundation: www.africanconservation.org

ERuDeF: www.erudef.org